Re: United States v. Jaquan Nicholas, 21 Cr. 540 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern:

In the above-referenced case, defendant Jaquan Nicholas is charged in a six-specification Amended Violation of Supervised Release Report. The Court has scheduled a final supervised release revocation hearing on April 27, 2022. The Government writes on behalf of the parties to request that the April 27th hearing be converted to a status conference.

The parties are discussing a potential resolution of the violation proceedings without the need for a hearing. That discussion turns, in significant part, on the outcome of a criminal case against the defendant in New York State court in Brooklyn, which underlies four of the six specifications. To allow the criminal case to run its course, and permit the parties to continue to discuss a potential resolution, we respectfully request that the Court hold a status conference, rather than a final hearing, on April 27th.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
